

Halo

Beyond Unbroken

How can you be so cold?
Used to be my halo
Now I'm always alone
Love you and I hate you
Love you

I'm always stuck inside my head
Hearing the words you said
Is there an out?
As I fill up with doubt
I only see you with dread
Try an' vent, 'cause I wanna make sense
While I'm feeling so tense
All this nonsense got me feeling so complex

The moment you lost it
Said things you don't mean
But that's just my guess
You've broken a promise
And it's too late
A heart's easy to break
For someone that's heartless

How can you be so cold?
Used to be my halo
Now I'm always alone
Love you and I hate you
Love you

So cold
Used to be my halo
Now I'm always alone
Love you and I hate you
Love you

(Used to be my)
(Used to be my)
(Used to be my halo)
(Used to be my)
(Used to be my)
(Used to be my halo)

Fell from grace
The day you saw my devil's face
I been to Hell and back
I built these walls like Heaven's gates
And I can't let you in, this cage you'll never bend or break
Anytime I almost cave, I feel the urge to step away

(Yeah)

You don't know me like that
And you don't want to
I know I be the one you run from
Not who you run to
I shut you out to save you
Convincing myself I hate you

You've become the monster that I made you

How can you be so cold (So cold)
Used to be my halo (Yeah, you used to be my halo)
Now I'm always alone (Alone)
Love you and I hate you (Hate you)
Love you (Love you, hate you)

How can you be so cold (So cold)
Used to be my halo (Yeah, you used to be my halo)
Now I'm always alone (Alone)
Love you and I hate you (Hate you)
Love you (Love you, hate you)

(Used to be my)
(Used to be my halo)
(Used to be my)
(Used to be my halo)

I love you (You)
You're so cold (So cold)
My halo (My halo)
I'm all alone
Love you
