

Hold On

Beyond Unbroken

Why am I feeling so dead
Hearing voices in my head
I wait along an empty road

Falling faster to the ground
Promising I won't let go
Trust my heart or trust my mind

I see you running
I see you hiding now
As I'm trying to hold on
And can you hear me?
I'm screaming louder
Hold on, hold on

Tearing into history
What is left inside of me
A tale of desperation's over
Picking scabs to break the wound
This will all be ending soon
Trust my heart or trust my mind

I see you running
I see you hiding now
As I'm trying to hold on
And can you hear me?
I'm screaming louder
Hold on, hold on

(Oh, oh)

I see you running
I see you hiding now
As I'm trying to hold on
And can you hear me?
I'm screaming louder
Hold on, hold on

(Oh, oh)
