

In My Head

Beyond Unbroken

Everyday in the nightmare you're killing me
Every night when I feel like you're in my head
Waking up I can feel you controlling me
Will you let go? Will you let go?

Every night when I think that you're losing me
Every night when I wake up still in my head
Waking up I can feel you controlling me
Will you let go? I can't let go

I can feel you running
Take me underneath your wing
Your red lips and black dress
All of the night, all of the night, tonight

You paint a picture of my dread
I feel alive when I know I'm dead
Starring blankly back again
All in my head, yeah
All in my head, yeah

It's kinda funny you think you're the only one
That knows the taste of my tongue
Your plastic smile melts away with the sun
(Melts away with the sun)

I can feel you running
Take me underneath your wing
Your red lips and black dress
All of the night, all of the night, tonight

You paint a picture of my dread
I feel alive when I know I'm dead
Starring blankly back again
All in my head, yeah
All in my head, yeah...

Everyday in the nightmare you're killing me
Every night when I feel like you're in my head
Waking up I can feel you controlling me
Will you let go? Will you let go?

You paint a picture of my dread
I feel alive when I know I'm dead
Starring blankly back again
All in my head, yeah
All in my head, yeah...
