

I've Fuck'd Things Up

Beyond Unbroken

I've gone and fucked things up
I can't remember what
What I said when we started over

You said that you had enough
I told you things would be tough
Please believe that I wanted closure

Don't pretend, don't pretend it was over
You held your tongue instead of asking for more love
I won't believe, won't believe that we've come close tonight

Like a tidal wave I'm feeling like we're dancing the night away
Hold tight while I'm writing our big escape
And take me 'cause I'm feeling alive
'Cause I'm feeling alive

Keep going back and forth
Just cannot take any more
Let's get it straight, leave it all behind us
I'm done with all these mistakes
We'll risk it all and let's take
One last breath as we're diving under

Don't pretend, don't pretend it was over
You held your tongue instead of asking for more love
I won't believe, won't believe that we've come close tonight

Like a tidal wave I'm feeling like we're dancing the night away
Hold tight while I'm writing our big escape
And take me 'cause I'm feeling alive
'Cause I'm feeling alive

I feel the sand between my hands
(I'm diving under)
As the morning sun came rising in

Like a tidal wave I'm feeling like we're dancing the night away
Hold tight while I'm writing our big escape
And take me 'cause I'm feeling alive
'Cause I'm feeling alive
