

The Madness

Beyond Unbroken

Wargh!

Hear me!
It's already too late
I'm all fucked up, broken, ready to break
I know you can hear me
And I'm not, I'm not in control

Nothing but the darkness
Nothing but the madness
I am lost forever
Nothing you can do to save me now

(Falling down)
(Falling down)

Falling down
My time is running out
I'm buried in my head and drowning, and I can't get out
I can't get out

Can't get out
Save yourself

Tell me
Tell me, are you afraid?
To see my face
As you struggle to breathe
Can anyone hear me?
I lost control
Of me

Of me
(Of me)

Can't you see you're
Falling down
Falling down

Falling down
My time is running out
I'm buried in my head and drowning, and I can't get out
I can't get out
I can't get out
I'm buried in my head and drowning, and I can't get out
I can't get out

So far so gone
I must make it out alive
Make it out alive
I can't get out
(No)
I must make it out alive
Make it out alive

Oh!
Blegh!

Let me go
Let me out
You
Can't control me
Let me go

Falling down
My time is running out
I'm buried in my head and drowning, and I can't get out
I can't get out
I can't get out
I'm buried in my head and drowning
And I
Get
Out

Time's running out
Out
