The Nightmare

Beyond Unbroken

In the night where I wait alone
I can see the anger as I turn to stone
I'm reaching out, medicate the pain

Trying to run away
Will I ever leave this nightmare?
(Let it go, you just let it go)
Never leave

In a nightmare
I am crawling in the dark
I've fallen, I've fallen all apart
Just wake me, will you wake me?
Im drowning myself alive
Wake me up tonight

I've fallen deeper and I can't get out
Looking for the answers
Going down this road
I walk alone, yeah
I walk alone

I hear these voices are controlling me
Trying to run away
Will I ever leave this nightmare?

In a nightmare
I am crawling in the dark
I've fallen, I've fallen all apart
Just wake me, will you wake me?
Im drowning myself alive
Wake me up tonight

(In the nightmare)

You wanna wake me up
My heart is breaking up
This time, this time I'll wait instead of letting go
You wanna wake me up
Instead, I'm dreaming
I'm not, I'm not afraid of ever letting go

In a nightmare
I am crawling in the dark
I've fallen, I've fallen all apart
Just wake me, will you wake me?
Im drowning myself alive
Wake me up tonight

You wanna wake me up
My heart is breaking up
This time, this time I'll wait instead of letting go
You wanna wake me up
Instead, I'm dreaming
I'm not, I'm not afraid of ever letting go
