

Fly Away

BGYO

Have you seen the stars at night?
Floating in the sky, they're shining bright
And when the moon starts to rise
Hope the noise inside my mind will someday

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away

Yeah, all the thoughts inside my head are telling me
That you are not enough, you're trash and it is killing me
Keeping me awake at night, I try to fight and smite
My hands are tight, frowning at the dark light

I got enemies crawling inside of my head
All these enemies, they keeping track of what I said
So what I do is to stare at the sky
Look at them with a smile, watch me succeed in a while

Love is a song that lives in us
A song that will never break us

Have you seen the stars at night?
Floating in the sky, they're shining bright
And when the moon starts to rise
Hope the noise inside my mind will someday

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away
Fly away, fly away

Yeah, all the thoughts inside my head are telling me
That you're more than enough
And you're where you're supposed to be
So just relax, my friend, and look into the mirror
You will see yourself and everything will be clearer

You're the sun, you're the moon and the stars
That lights up the world and makes everything better
So if you're lost, keep your eyes on the stars
You belong to the sky and I know you will soar higher

Love is a song that lives in us
A song that will never break us

Have you seen the stars at night?
Floating in the sky, they're shining bright
And when the moon starts to rise
Hope the noise inside my mind will someday

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away

Have you seen the stars at night?
Floating in the sky, they're shining bright

Sing with me, let's be free
Remove all the noise
Let go of disbeliefs, let's be free
Let us start a new beginning and fly away

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away
(We can fly away)

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away

Fade away, go away
Reaching all my dreams and fly away
Fly away, fly away
