

Alice sits on the corner
She feels better than ever
She knows, she knows you're not coming home
Alice sits on the corner

Alice walks by the river
She feels prettier than ever
Light reflects on water, the sun hits her hair
Alice walks by the river

Alice Alice
What is your secret?
Alice Alice
How do you sleep at night?
Alice Alice
How do you stand so calm?
When everything you live for is gone..

Alice watches the sky above
She feels younger than ever
As she spins and spins the wind hits her dress
Alice watches the sky above

Alice Alice
What is your secret?
Alice Alice
How do you sleep at night?
Alice Alice
How do you stand so calm?
When everything you live for is gone..

Hold my hand til they turn cold
Til my eyes finally see gold..
Take my hand, embrace this dance
Our last is almost over..
Sell my antiques, tell their story
We my friend made history...

Alice knows where she's going
She says in heaven, there's no loneliness
As she reaches her final day, she still wears a smile
Alice knows where she's going..
