

Man Down

Bianca Ryan

I walk alone the stones you throw will never stop me
The front lines wearing me out
Might be another man down

I loved once
You, you loved twice
I knew what I wanted
I knew what I wanted

I had my big dreams
You had your big plans
We knew what we wanted
We had what we wanted

I'll hold you in my arms, in my heart tonight
Cause we'll get lost in debris of tomorrows fight
I'm holding on
You're so far gone
I thought that you wanted
I thought that you wanted me....

I walk alone the stones you throw will never stop me
I've got my heart in my hand now can you hear it pound?
Understand you're just a man,
We hurt, we bleed, surrender,
The front lines wearing me out
Might be another man down

We Fight
We Bleed
We Love
Too deep
It's you
No, no It's me
Might be another man down...
We Fight
We Bleed
We Love
Too deep
It's you
No, no It's me
Might be another man down...

I forgave you
Went on like days do
Until it unfolded
Your world just exploded

Look on the rear view
You've got a clear view
It's not what we wanted
You're not what I wanted but

I'll hold you in my arms, in my heart tonight
Cause we'll get lost in debris of tomorrows fight
I'm holding on
You're so far gone

I thought that you wanted
I thought that you wanted me....

I walk alone the stones you throw will never stop me
I've got my heart in my hand now can you hear it pound?
Understand you're just a man,
We hurt, we bleed, surrender,
The front lines wearing me out

We Fight
We Bleed
We Love
Too deep
It's you
No, no It's me
Might be another man down...
We Fight
We Bleed
We Love
Too deep
It's you
No, no It's me
Might be another man down...

We fight
We bleed
We love
Too deep
We fight
We bleed
It's you, no
No It's me

I walk alone the stones you throw will never stop me
I've got my heart in my hand now can you hear it..
Understand you're just a man,
We hurt, we bleed, surrender,
The front lines wearing me out
Might be another man down

We Fight
We Bleed
We Love
Too deep
It's you
No, no It's me
Might be another man down...
We Fight
We Bleed
We Love
Too deep
It's you
No, no It's me
Might be another man down...
We fight
We bleed
We love
Too deep
Yeahh
Might be another man down
