

Plastic Lovers

Bianca Ryan

Plastic lovers, uh
We only love what's on the outside
I see you and at first, I think
The outside matches with the inside

We can build our plastic town
Where no face has frowns
And the lies are hollow
I can wear a plastic crown
I won't pull you down
Take my hand and follow

Pull the shades, pour the Tanqueray
Don't need the mask to have the masquerade
Pull the shades, pour the Tanqueray
Don't need the mask to have the masquerade

You'll be my toy soldier, and
I'll be your plastic doll
We can watch the world from up above, and
It won't hurt if we fall
You'll be my toy soldier
And I'll be Jet Barbie
We'll fly through the sky
If you happen to break my heart
No tears can come from plastic eyes

(You'll be my toy soldier
And I'll be Jet Barbie
If you happen to break my heart
No tears can come
From plastic eyes
Plastic, plastic eyes
Plastic eyes)

Plastic lovers, we
Were so afraid of what was inside
'Cause depth uncovers, uh
The pain, the laughs of what was once mine

We can build our plastic town
Where no face has frowns
And the lies are hollow
I can wear a plastic crown
I won't pull you down
Take my hand and follow

Pull the shades, pour the Tanqueray
Don't need the mask to have the masquerade
Pull the shades, pour the Tanqueray
Don't need the mask to have the masquerade

You'll be my toy soldier, and
It won't hurt if we fall

And I'll be Jet Barbie
No tears can come from plastic eyes

You'll be my toy soldier, and
It won't hurt if we fall

(You'll be my toy soldier
No tears can come
From plastic eyes
Plastic, plastic eyes
