

Remember

Bianca Ryan

2 years, 4 months, 1 heart
3 words that just couldn't be said
And I know you tried
Meanwhile, I'm tired
And I just can't

See I was holding my breath for something
That I knew was never coming
Gone, put a sad song on

And could I right my wrongs?
Could I do it again baby?
Just one more chance, maybe?
And if I can't change time
I could change the now, baby
Just remember what your old man said
Baby one day we'll be there
Remember what your old man said, yeah,
And it didn't make sense

2 years, 4 months, 1 heart
3 words that I just couldn't take back, oh no
And I know I gave the best of me
And time will see I'm not given in
See I was holding my breath for something
Gave a lot into nothing
Over time these grays made me wise

And could I right my wrongs?
Could I do it again baby?
Just one more chance, maybe?
And if I can't change time
I could change the now, baby
Just remember what your old man said
Baby one day we'll be there
Remember what your old man said...

And could I right my wrongs?
Could I do it again baby?
Just one more chance, maybe?
And if I can't change time
I could change the now, baby
Just remember what your old man said
Maybe one day we'll be there
And could I right my wrongs? (Right my wrongs)
Could I do it again baby?
Just one more chance, maybe?
And could I still stand tall? (Still stand tall)
Even after the fall
Just breathe and remember what your old man said
Maybe one day we'll be,
One day you'll be there
