

What If

Bibi Bourelly

What if I told you
That I ain't love you no more
That I ain't even care if you live
What if I told you
That I ain't trust you no more
Or believe a word that you've said

Would you ever care? Nah nah nah
Would you ever care?
Would you ever care? Nah nah nah
Would you ever care?

What if I told you
That I ain't always right
That I've done told some lies
That I fuck up sometimes
What if I told you
That I've done lost my mind
I get lost in the night
And I drink myself to sleep in the morning sometimes
Baby, I drink myself to sleep in the morning sometimes

What if I told you
The truth
What if I told you
The truth

What if I told you
That I've done got locked up
That I've failed out of school
That I got sober
Hard on these niggas
They don't even listen
I ain't even got to pop shit
They don't even seen my vision, shit

Would you ever care? Nah nah nah
Would you ever care?
Would you ever care? Nah nah nah nah nah nah
You wouldn't even care

What if I told you
That I ain't always right
That I've done told some lies
That I fuck up sometimes
What if I told you
That I've done lost my mind
And I drink myself to sleep in the morning sometimes
Baby, I drink myself to sleep in the morning sometimes

What if I told you
The truth
What if I told you
The truth
