

Even More Excuses

Bibio

Had a lot of fears but I didn't want you to see doubt
I shouldn't let it burn but I didn't want you to find out
I've made a lot of vows and I know the first thing about breaking them
I would have kept them locked but I never wanted you left aching

Held a lot of tears back I didn't want you to see guilt
I'd show you all the flowers but I didn't want to see them wilt
I've made a lot of vows and I know the worst thing about breaking them
I would have kept it quiet but I never wanted your heart aching

(Held a lot of tears back I didn't want you to see guilt)
(I'd show you all the flowers but I didn't want to see them wilt)
(I've made a lot of vows and I know the worst thing about breaking them)
(I would have kept it quiet but I never wanted your heart aching)
