

Lost Somewhere

Bibio

When you talk about all your wishes to roam
It's sounding like you read it somewhere
You will more than likely feel it at home
Supposing that you feel it somewhere

When you're crying your excuses and blame
It's telling that you've held this some time
You are more than welcome to explain it
Assuming that you know it inside

Feeling like you're lost somewhere
Feeling like you're lost somewhere
Feeling like you're lost somewhere

Shine out
And let go
Shine like a knife
And sever the meaningless
Shine out
And let it glow
Shine with the things
You never believed you were blessed

Shine out
And let it go
Shine like a knife
And sunder the demon girl
Shine out
And let it glow
Shine with the light
You never believed you had

Feeling like we're lost somewhere
Feeling like we're lost somewhere

Feeling like we're lost somewhere...
Feeling like we're lost somewhere...

Feeling like we're lost somewhere...

Feeling like we're lost somewhere...
