

Potion

Bibio

I wanna write a verse for each other
And sing it for no other
I would kill to be the other
Half of someone like you
Oh baby I'd bottle this emotion
And drink it like a potion
I would die to make this moment
The last feeling I had

Oh baby I know it's an illusion
Or maybe just confusion
But I give in to my delusion
When the feeling's so beautiful
I wanna make a vow together
And live by it forever
But it's a drop in the ocean
With somebody like you

Oh baby, I'll hold on to you
Oh baby, I'll hold on to you
Oh baby, I'll hold on to you
Oh baby, I'll hold on to you

I wanna write a verse for each other
And sing it for no other
I would kill to be the other
Half of someone like you
Oh baby I'd bottle this emotion
And drink it like a potion
I would die to make this moment
The last feeling I had

Oh baby I know it's an illusion
Or maybe just confusion
But I give in to my delusion
When the feeling's so beautiful
I wanna make a vow together
And live by it forever
But it's a drop in the ocean
With somebody like you
