

You Won't Remember...

Bibio

He sees you
More than you could know
In his chair at night
He can't clear his mind

Silence hurts
No-distractions-ache
Then he gets the call
And he drives for miles

You won't remember
But he wanted you
He'd like to tell you
That he wanted you

He sees you
But you don't see him
In your bed at night
In your line of sight

Silence sings
And his ears will ring
With that final bleep
He can't fall to sleep

You won't remember
But he wanted you
He'd like to tell you
That you're haunting him
