I say I'm a man before anything, won't go for just anything
One watch, street tennis chain, big house and a big name
Long away from the candy lady, still stop and say hey
Just left Auntie projects, 'cause that where we had played and raised
Ayy, Pyrex whipper
I had hope to jump back when I spinned my last
'Cause don't nobody love you 'til you jump back, shining on they ass Wanna ball?
Had served some glass 'fore I went to class
All I know is win, I go harder when they put me last

Ayy, victory, I'm in Tennessee, I need time, I'm movin too fast Pray for the enemy, when they runnin me, better go with they move and crash
My feet still on the dash, eyes in the reviews, servin' and duckin th e tab
Where I been living, I took all the tags in case it go down and I got ta blast
Get so deep, I see demons when I sleep
Got my future in my hand, plus myself depend on me
Still I creep, TLC, why this Glock stay close to me
Stuffin' dick in all these freaks, I ain't payin' them, it be free
Buy the ticket
When it come to murder 'cause them hoes be cheap
Silly rabbit, you know tricks for kids, I can't take no tricks
You the plug? Show me love, drop the ticket just for me Fishscale, other boy, you know I be playin' for keeps

At A.M. school time, nigga, I'm shooting craft
Stopping up at Pops to get a snowball and do a dab
All the bitches see the drip, so I won't try to chase no clout
I worry about he and the opps, nigga, see how I make it out
I got locked for stealing rays and getting'a nigga ass clapped
In my entries, it be different, ten niggas walk in 'fore me
I got niggas up on shirt and we got back on rock tees
Murder and love, team out a nigga, 'bows got out with me

I say I'm a man before anything, won't go for just anything
One watch, street tennis chain, big house and a big name
Long away from the candy lady, still stop and say hey
Just left Auntie projects, 'cause that where we had played and raised
