

Strangers Again

Bic Runga

The way that it stands
I can't hold you
The way that it stands
I don't even know you

We're strangers again
How does it happens after all the time we spent
Strangers again
Now we're waiting for our time to come again
Strangers again
Facing the sad sunrise
Rising, rising

Don't let go my hand
Don't try to freeze me
Don't let go my hand
I want you to seize me

We're lovers again
And when it happens I don't want the night to end

Lovers again
Now we're waiting for our time to come again
Lovers again
Facing the sad sunrise
Rising, rising
Let's spend some time together
Not seeking pain or pleasure
Just killing time together
Tonight

We're strangers again
And when it happens all you know I can't pretend
Strangers again
Now we're waiting for our time to come again
Strangers again
Facing the sad sunrise
Rising, rising
