

You never loved me Jim
You made a fool of me again and again
You never told the truth
When I believed in you again and again

You try to take control
Unworthy of my love and money
Criticize and tell me how I feel
Tell me I don't measure up
Telling me I overreach
I'm begging to leave
I'm begging to leave

Fill me with rage
Fill my head with your lies

You never loved me Jim
You made a fool of me again and again
You never told the truth
When I believed in you again and again
You never loved me Jim
You made a fool of me again and again
You never told the truth
When I believed in you again and again

You could've done it all
Could have anything
And I could jump from the bridge
But you'd be standing at the bottom
Right where you belong
Right where you belong
So stay there, drown in your sea

Fill me with rage
Fill my head with your lies

You never loved me Jim
You made a fool of me again and again
You never told the truth
When I believed in you again and again
You never loved me Jim
You made a fool of me again and again
You never told the truth
You knew that I needed you again and again
You never loved me Jim
You made a fool of me again and again
You never told the truth
You knew that I needed you again and again

You never loved me Jim
You never loved me Jim
