

The Letter

Bif Naked

can you remember chestnut street and algae ripping at our feet i was just a little girl and you were my whole world.

what i'd give to be lying in your arms,
what i'd give to be your girl again:

did you know that you were my first love did you know it's you i still dream of i've grown up a lot since then my nostalgic heart will never mend.

what i'd give to be lying in your arms,
what i'd give to be your girl again:
(what i'd give to be your girl again)
