

Following Master

Biffy Clyro

When all the lights fade to darkness but multiply
Don't you forget who you are
You're not a leech, just a confused little butterfly
Lost in a breeze or a dream

I'll never mess with your heart
I'll never mess with your heart

Oh my God, oh my anything
What's it like to be used and betrayed?
Played your cards, you're the enemy
There's only one master here

Standing on the shore, the skyline is adorable
It's a shame about this disfigured place

I'll never mess with your heart
I'll never mess with your heart

Oh my God, oh my anything
What's it like to be used and betrayed?
Played your cards, you're the enemy
There's only one master here
All I am, all I've ever been
Is be honest and truthful with you
Where has that ever gotten me?
There's only one master here

What's the point of relevance?
It never really suited you
Your dreams won't follow your feet
This world never suited you
Shouldn't you go?

Follow your master
Stop following me
Follow your master!
Follow your master
Stop following me
Follow your master!
