

Goodbye

Biffy Clyro

I'm out of reach, you're out of bed
We can't avoid it, it'll bite in the end
Yesterday is over, so let's not pretend
We can start over, have things to defend
I'm gonna leave here, I'll explain in a note
How I betrayed you and covered it up
I'll fall on my knees, I'll fall on my sword
No one will ever love you like I did before

Goodbye, my love
It was too much but never enough
Goodbye, my lover
Why did we even bother?

A far-away station, a stranger in a coat
You're my salvation, waiting in the cold
An audible screech, a visible groan
I tried my best to build us a home
I'm done repeating, but then again, no
The more that I do it, it becomes habitual
It falls on deaf ears, hope falls to the floor
No one knows anything, I know that for sure

Goodbye, my love
It was too much but never enough
Goodbye, my lover
Why did we even bother?
Goodbye, forever
But it hurts
Goodbye to everyone

I'll miss you all
I'll miss you all
I'll miss you all
I'll miss you all
I've blessed you all
I've blessed you all
I've blessed you all
I've blessed you all
All

Goodbye, my love
It was too much but never enough
Goodbye, my lover
Why did we even bother?
Goodbye, forever
But it hurts
Goodbye to everyone
