

As my lover comes to bed,
She looks great, I look a mess.
Time to put my clothes on.
Don't say a word, don't say a word.

Ghastly thousand spotty cheeks,
"Quite a catch" is what she said.
You can have my money.
Don't stick around, don't stick around.

I've been lost since my very first day,
Found at last by grey days.

I'll keep seeing,
I'm still leaving
With my swollen eyes.

I'll keep dripping,
Keep on living
'til this monster dies.

I'm keeping on,
I'm keeping on.

As my lover comes to bed,
she looks great, I look a mess.
Time to put my clothes on.
Don't say a word, don't say a word.

I'll keep seeing,
I'm still leaving
With my swollen eyes.

I'll keep dripping,
Keep on living
'til this monster dies.

I'm keeping on,
I'm keeping on.
