On a Bang

Oceans of red Oceans of darkest red I can predict the future I will predict the future What you don't know Is none of your concern You only fuck dumb creatures

Blame the science Just don't blame mother nature She's kinda frightening We're only watchers here and Now you know better Why can't you fucking do better? Now you know better Why can't you fucking do better?

I gave my heart Open a locked door What is your contribution? Where is it in your skull? Time doesn't heal It just makes deal with this Where is your shitty future? You motherfucker

Blame the science Just don't blame mother nature She's kinda frightening We're only watchers here and Now you know better Why can't you fucking do better? Now you know better Why can't you fucking do better? Now you know better Why can't you fucking do better? Now you know better Why can't you fucking do better? Do better
