

Sunrise

Biffy Clyro

There's something wrong in the neighbourhood
It's felt strange here for hours
I only wanted unusual
But there's no smoke without liars

Because my mind's made up
When I hear your voice
Why is it so fucked up?
The sun will rise, do you believe?

I didn't want to break, but I broke
There was a sunset deep in my heart
I didn't try and speak, but I spoke
I spoke in tongues and ship, brothership, brothership, brothership, s hip

If it broke do you think we should Resurrect or devour?
Forfeit all expectations and We'll consummate in the flowers

Because my mind's made up
When I hear your voice
Why is it so fucked up?
The sun will rise, do you believe?

I didn't want to break, but I broke
There was a sunset deep in my heart
I didn't try and speak, but I spoke
I spoke in tongues and ship, brothership, brothership

I didn't want to break, but I broke (Didn't wanna break)
There was a sunset deep in my heart (Sun will never rise)
I didn't try and speak, but I spoke (Didn't wanna speak)
I spoke in tongues and ship, brothership, brothership, brothership, s

Will the sun rise
In our lifetime?
How'd you survive
Without losing your mind?

I didn't want to break, but I broke
There was a sunset deep in my heart
I didn't try and speak, but I spoke
I spoke in tongues and ship, brothership, brothership

I didn't want to break, but I broke (Didn't wanna break)
There was a sunset deep in my heart (Sun will never rise)
I didn't try and speak, but I spoke (Didn't wanna speak)
I spoke in tongues and ship, brothership, brothership, brothership, s
