

Tootoottoot

Biffy Clyro

When the bough breaks
I'll still be watching you
I will be trailing you
With a lens in my face

We're whistling pretty
The lights on so open and see
I'll give all your secrets away
I'm such a fool

And I
Will sing to you
Tootoottoot goes the trumpeter
Sickly sweet when he plays

My leading man
Stands tall at a miniscule height
Infecting the room with his yawn
Watch his sphere

And I
Will sing to you
Tootoottoot goes the trumpeter
Sickly sweet when he plays
Tootoottoot find your buried joy
This fast and wonderful place

Dangerous claws and black velvet paws
My immediate thought is to fuck them off
Incensive thoughts
I'm jumping for joy
Our savage descriptions convinced you all

Would you like to tootoottoot
Like the trumpeter?
Would you like to
Everything is here

Dangerous claws and black velvet paws
My immediate thought is to fuck them off
Incensive thoughts
I'm jumping for joy
Our savage descriptions convinced you all
