Toottoottoot

When the bough breaks I'll still be watching you I will be trailing you With a lens in my face

We're whistling pretty The lights on so open and see I'll give all your secrets away I'm such a fool

And I Will sing to you Toottoottoot goes the trumpeter Sickly sweet when he plays

My leading man Stands tall at a miniscule height Infecting the room with his yawn Watch his sphere

And I Will sing to you Toottoottoot goes the trumpeter Sickly sweet when he plays Toottoottoot find your buried joy This fast and wonderful place

Dangerous claws and black velvet paws My immediate thought is to fuck them off Incensive thoughts I'm jumping for joy Our savage descriptions convinced you all

Would you like to toottoottoot Like the trumpeter? Would you like to Everything is here

Dangerous claws and black velvet paws My immediate thought is to fuck them off Incensive thoughts I'm jumping for joy Our savage descriptions convinced you all
