Watch

Biffy Clyro

I've been watching and
I must say that when I go out
I see the signs
I feel my brain crashing

When I'm raging
I take a dip in a purple sea
And feel the salt healing all my fear
Did I just say that anyone but me?

Somebody will live
Somebody will die
We cast our net out from both our sides
Watch both arms, watch both feet
It rushes all from the mill to the edge

Don't you just want
To feel like you're here?
Whatever that is
I'll take a helping, here
I think I'm scared
Of feeling more alone
I need someone to share with
And someone to moan

I've been watching and
I must say that when I go out
I see the signs
I feel my brain crashing

I've been watching and
I must weep
Cause when I wake up
I hear your voice
I hear you calming me down
Padlock, wastecoats and
Skull ship sleeps

Somebody will live
Somebody will die
We cast our net out from both our sides
Watch both arms, watch both feet
It rushes all from the mill to the edge

Don't you just want
To feel like you're here?
Whatever that is
I'll take a helping, here
I think I'm scared
Of feeling more alone
I need someone to share with
And someone to moan

Don't you just want
To feel like you're here?
Whatever that is

I think I'm scared
Of feeling more alone
I need someone to share with
And someone to hold
