

Mr. Walker Said

Big Audio Dynamite

Hey girl I know you well
I know when you were born
Walker say we're heaven made
Cause I'm a Capricorn

The sun the moon and stars
Predict what lies ahead
So Mr. Walker said

So every move I make
He says is prordained
Just when I think I'm free
He says I'm bound in chains

But when the night is clear
Signs are easy found
My feet are on the ground

Some people read the stars
For answers yet unknown
Some people read the stars
I think I'll write my own
So Mr. Walker said

Some look in Tarot cards
And others cups of tea
This modern voodoo spaceman
Looks in the Galaxy
And everything he sees
Is beamed in from the med
So Mr. Walker said

Do I do what I'm supposed to do
Or what my fate spells out for me
Do I do what I'm supposed to do
Or is it in my destiny

He looks into the sky
And like a book it's read
So Mr. Walker said

Some people read the stars
For answers yet unknown
Some people read the stars
I think I'll write my own
So Mr. Walker said
