

Wind Distorted Pioneers

Big Big Train

Figure I have lost my way
Along these dark denuded trails
Headed north out of my place
And sought the plains and wooded hills
Broken by grey lines and wheels and bright steel

Hit the ground running

Hard upon hard broken shattered stone
Past the tree line nothing grows
But wind distorted pioneers, like you and I
But you and I take shelter from the dark sky