

Home Came The Angels

Big Country

Home, Home Came The Angels
All that was never alive
Cast out and still welcome
All that was never alive

Home, Home Came The Angels
To the shore and sea where they lie
And still the days fire on
With never ending pace

And we are now no nearer
To the finish of the race
And who will know we won
No one