

In The PJ's

Big Daddy Kane

Livin' in the world of ghetto life
Shot with the gun, get you cut with the knife
That's the story yo, the way the peeps like to move
No fakin' the funk, it's all about how to show and prove Some get to make it through life livin' legal
The others gotta try to survive, doin' the evil that men do, peace to every hood that I been through I even got love for my homies in South Central
But to the East my brother, cause that's where I stay at Runnin' through the streets like a stray cat
Like that Good Times show it makes me go
Hmmm, mmm, mm
Up in the projects, it gets no iller
With true guerillas, and stone cold killers
It seems that every night, you get to hear the fireworks
As much as I hate, to see my people die or hurt
it's just a street mentality, a reality
Neighborhood warfare, that brings home casualties
And just because I moved out the residence
It don't mean that I can't represent

Yeah! Yeah!

So to my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
Let me know you're out there
To my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
Let me know you're out there
And to my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
And let me know you're out there
Ah to my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
And let me know you're out there

I'm runnin' mob deep around the way
It's me and the crew, we're tryin' to map out the day
Yo what's the haps on how we gettin' snaps?
Are we gonna shoot some cee-lo, or play a game of craps?
Matter fact, Shane, ring the intercom
And see if you can get ten dollars from my moms
Tell her to throw it out the window if she got it to spare
Cause the elevator's broke, and I ain't checkin' for the stairs
And do me a solid, run to the store shorty
And pick me up some Olde E, but not a 40
Just a two-two of brew will do, so I can knock it out fast to make the coldness last

And while you at man see where'd your friend go (word)
He shoulda been back a HOUR ago with the indo (yeah)

And meet us in the back park to get sparked
So I can be toasted by time it gets dark
Ayo Jay, I see that bulge in the back of your jeans
Hope that's the God you Now, know what I mean?
Cause if somebody brings the noise, I'ma make it a silent movie

So take the safety off the toolie
Cause I don't want no beef, nah baby
The only thing I want to do is parlay
Peace and harmony is what I relate to
But damn man, drama's just in the nature

So to my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
Let me know you're out there
To my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
Let me know you're out there
And to my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
And let me know you're out there
Ah to my peeps in the PJ's, throw your hands in the air
"For all of y'all"
And let me know you're out there

I send this out to the homies in the hood
That stood by my side, to help a brother do good
Just like SWV you was Right Here
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah we in there
From all thugs that flex with all the muscle down to the brothers, that got a swift hustle
Like good golly Miss Three Card Molly, a neat trick where people get beat quick want to see a sweet vic?

Jackety Jack, blackety black
You get nuttin back, and that's a fact
The sweetest game I ever seen
All you gotta do is find the red queen
Just point to it, can anybody point to it?
I play by the point of the finger of the hand
"The one in the middle! The one in the middle!"
That's black, you get no money back!
