

Glory Unspeakable

Big Daddy Weave

What's wrong with the world
It's falling apart, we're running deeper into the dark
Calling right wrong, and calling wrong right
Please don't believe the lie
Keep holding on to the promise
We have a home beyond this

We're gonna be home soon
Tell people everywhere
In the struggle hold on because we're almost there
It only hurts for a little while
But in a moment we'll see his glory unspeakable

What's wrong with the world so much suffering
We can't see past our broken hearts
But if we look to the King who is soon coming
Joy will never fall
Keep holding on to the promise
We have a home beyond this

We're gonna be home soon
Tell people everywhere
In the struggle hold on because we're almost there
It only hurts for a little while
But in a moment we'll see his glory unspeakable

How I long for the day when this all fades away
And I look on the face of the One who saves
I'll lift up my eyes to his glorious light
See the promise of heaven revealed in my life
We're gonna be home soon
Tell people everywhere
In the struggle hold on because we're almost there
It only hurts for a little while
But in a moment we'll see his glory unspeakable
We're gonna be home soon
Tell people everywhere
In the struggle hold on because we're almost there
It only hurts for a little while
But in a moment we'll see his glory unspeakable
Oh in a moment we'll see his glory unspeakable
