

Second Time

Big Gigantic

All night I've been wondering why
This here, happens just one time

'Cause when it ends, I won't be fine
We've been dancing on no thin lines
The ground has never felt so high

Go ahead, time, but it makes me sentimental
Don't bring up the future, you know it's not helpful
So good it makes me want to try
And feel it for a second time
Feel it for a second time

Where did that moment go?
It pulled me in and I lost control

'Cause when it ends, I won't be fine
We've been dancing on no thin lines
The ground has never felt so high
Just feel it for a second time

(A second time)
Just feel it for a second

Go ahead, time, but it makes me sentimental
Don't bring up the future, you know it's not helpful
So good it makes me want to try
And feel it for a second time
Feel it for a second time

Go ahead, time, but it makes me sentimental
Don't bring up the future, you know it's not helpful
So good it makes me want to try
And feel it for a second time
