

Waiting in America

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

Broken in a tall black street of rain and inhumanity without shelter
white or pride
or even just the little things Will you come for me?
sittin' in the summer sun thinkin' you would remember me Are there too many good deeds done
In your world of sweet serenity?