

Brycie

Big Red Machine

Take me high, lay me low
You know my thoughts before I know
Lift me up when I'm down
You watched my back when we were young

You watched my back when we were young
You stick around when we're old
I'm sleeping sound when you're in the room
You help me stay above the ground

You said I couldn't take it
I wouldn't make it, I hate to say it
Oh, wait a minute
I couldn't take it, over it now

You take me high, you lay me low
You know my thoughts before I know
I wore it out, you wore me down
You watched my back when we were young

You said I couldn't take it
I wouldn't make it, I hate to say it
Oh, wait a minute
I couldn't take it, over it now

You said I can relate
It's all in your mind
I hate to say it
Oh, wait a minute
I couldn't take it
Oh, not to worry over it now

If I'm the trouble, you're the storm
If I'm the sound, you're the song
If I'm the thunder, you're the law
If I'm the dusk, you're the walk

You said I could take it, I can relate
Oh, wait a minute, I wouldn't say it
Over the top, I wouldn't make it
I hesitate, oh, wait a minute
I hate to say it, deny he's worth saving
Oh, I didn't mean it, over it now

You said I can relate
You couldn't take it, oh, wait a minute
Honey, where's the money?
I hate to say it, deny he's worth saving
Over it now

Lift me up when I'm feelin' down
Help me stay above the ground