

Bad Friends

Big Scary

I sit and stare at my shoes
I sit and stare at the wall
I watch the planes fly overhead
I will say nothing at all
I'll sing the song of silence
I'll sing no song at all

And in this time of waking
And effortlessly breaking
Bad friends are looking for something new
Bad friends aren't looking for you

Oh will you open up the door?
Let this stranger sleep upon your floor
Until we all fall down like water
The chaos and the order

I am the ring in your ear
I am the dust in the window sill
And my friends are out getting drunk somewhere without me
And in this kingdom of nothing
I am the king of everything
Bad friends keep looking for something new
Bad friends aren't looking for you

Oh will you open up the door?
Let this stranger sleep upon your floor
Until we all fall down like water
The chaos and the order
