

Full Circle

Big Sean

Yeah, doing donuts in the Porsche at the dealer, listening to Dilla
The Lord always made a way, yeah, that's my nigga
You used to drive the Honda Civic, nigga, I remember
I was being optimistic, I ain't have a pot to piss in
I was living on my ex-girl couch, terrible
All my money kept going out, I ain't had enough to move
I felt like a vegetable, lived 2012 on a sectional
Damn, couple years later I'm living exceptional
Spent thirty thousand, my Rollie came extra gold
Bitch ass niggas just mad I'm gettin' on

Welcome to the terror dome, my how my hair has grown
All I wanted was a Rollie and a Tupac herringbone
Midwest kids damn near all we used to hear was bone
Two family flat, mommy and aunt used to share a home
Boy, I'll rip your heart out and eat it while it's still beatin'
For no real reason just blame it on killin' season
Circle of life, top of the food chain, my new chain a circle of ice
My name deserving the lights
The smartest thing you could do is stop music and finish school
Gotta be the dumbest shit I ever heard in my life
If yesterday is the tomb, then tomorrow is the womb
Waiting on the Son of God 'cause he coming back soon, hol' up
Flashbacks of me dancing in my living room was my first audition
Puff, B.I.G. and Ma$E waving gold bottles in the lenses like

Never let you me go, that's the worst feeling (Whoa)
I still love you like my first million
You got me hypnotized like the scene with B.I.G. and I reverse wheelin' (Damn)
Ciroc boys, blue circle business, that's full circle (Yeah)
Full circle like losing friends from backin' up 'Ye to rapping for 'Ye
Who dropped his first album, I was in the 10th grade
To ten years later me dropping a number one the exact same day
Swear everything come full circle, dawg, you just gotta wait
Full circle like listening to B.I.G.
To growing up they calling you big
Full circle like giving your first Rolex to your first kid
Full circle like exactly what the fuck karma is Full circle like every single thing I ever did

Yeah, niggas don't even make shit like this no more
Shit's lost, it's a lost motherfucking art
I want the people out there in the world to hear me though
I don't do it alone

Drop all the jealousy, that shit is gon' hurt you
Quit giving energy to ones that don't deserve you
You know everything comes full circle
I just show love, watch it come full circle
And I can never let those bad vibes inside my circle
Nah and loyalty deserves you
And tell the fucking truth, even when it hurts too
But the most money come before the first two (Straight)
Don't worry, it'll come full circle

Took all the pain that I knew and made songs

When God said, "Let there be light", he made Sean
