

Overtime

Big Sean

Yeah, woah, woah
I just been feeling like this all clicking, you know
(Hitboy)
Like it's all working out, and I'm 'bout to work out, colossal
BIG, look

The universe been throwin' me all the signs except 'Stop it' (Stop)
Niggas been plottin' on me, but here's a plot twist
I can't throw fits no more unless it's profits
Lord, why you keep boxin' me in? 'Cause I'm God's gift?
I might set my mic back up in the closet though
Just to give myself that same feeling from '04
When my hunger was more, advice to you and yours
They say it's over for you, that's when you go overboard, OK
Shit, I didn't take a break, my nigga, I broke Broke my heart, broke my soul, don't cry for me though
If you don't break nothing down, then there's no room to grow
One mental block leads to another, shit is dominoes
Mixtape Sean, but I'm in album mode
Ooh, she give me praise, I love her angel face
Ass so fat, she could work at TSA (Damn)
I went to school at Cass, Aaliyah went to DSA a mile away
Just let you know the type of kings and queens my city make
And I'll probably need a parade
All the soldiers with me, this shit is like Green Beret
So legendary, I'ma prolly need a day (June 29th)

Forgot I already got one, be damned if I'm not one
You talkin' 'bout the hottest in the city, most influential
Rappin' ass niggas and I'm the top one
Me and Em knocked down doors for ya'll that was locked once
I know they might never get me, I still put on for the city
Like the Lions first round picked me, I ain't been fuckin', I been too busy
I got two phones, they both business
I got fake ones tryna end me, I got real ones gon' defend me
Like a fuckin' co-defendant, I got 'DonLife' on my pendant
I'm conditioned to do the distance and I just set up the pensions
Family sound like my intentions, been balancing trying to keep my company
With the girls who wanna keep me company (Damn)
You know, the ones who claim they over me
But would much rather be under me
It's confident, I been through too much just to be done with me
And you know that shit get stressful, right?
Shit taxing, the same thing that got Wesley Snipe'd

And you know how I'm rocking, rocking Elvis Presley white
You know, highlight reel'in', all highlights like we're sittin' on top of mu seum ceilings
No more resisting, if you ain't on my frequency you out of tune and not tune d in
And break the unbreakable, escape the un-escapable
'Til you push your fuckin' limits, you don't even know what's capable (No)
Fuck that shit that you believe in, I believe in me (Me)
Talkin' on they phones in PC like they off that PCP
Bitch I spit that Eazy E, face to face SMACK DVD
I don't got no time for hanging out and all that etc
Just cut the check, CTC, God-body my physique

I could look inside your eyes and know exactly what you mean
Fuck you mean? Energy the first language that I speak
No facade, I belong in the Palace of Versailles with a queen by my side
In this 'Hot Girl Summer' I'm just tryna find a wife
Visualizing from every island that's on Hawaii with my team on each side like
With the last laugh like Kawhi
And you know that you the one when you beat all the other odds
I keep one for playin' it at home and the other one on swivel though
Gotta keep 'em both 'cause the shit get way too pivotal
All the work is analogue, all the payment digital
When ten percent'll flare up, I'm the one to be cool, since pre-school
I know which ones that's been rockin' with me, dog, since the prequel (Woah)
Just be cool, I know your favorite one, dog, I'm 'bout to drop the sequel
Nigga, this just the preview, Don
