

Ask You Tonight

Big Time Rush

I think the writing's on the wall
I've put this off for far too long
It's not so complicated when you meet the one

I'm gonna tell you tonight
Everything you wanna hear
And for the rest of my life
Plus like a million more years
You're the only one I wanna love
The only one this I promise ya
If that sounds alright
I might just ask you tonight

The way time stops when I'm with you
You fix me up like I'm brand-new
Now I'm no longer waiting on forever love

I'm gonna tell you tonight
Everything you wanna hear
And for the rest of my life
Plus like a million more years
You're the only one I wanna love
The only one this I promise ya
If that sounds alright
I might just ask you tonight

Oh ooh
Oh ooh
Oh ooh
I might just ask you tonight
Oh ooh
Oh ooh
Oh ooh
I might just ask you tonight

No more waiting
I know you're the one
No more searching for the better half of me
I'm not playing around anymore
This is the real thing
I know it's the real thing

I'm gonna tell you tonight
Everything you wanna hear
And for the rest of my life
Plus like a million more years
You're the only one I wanna love
The only one this I promise ya
If that sounds alright
I might just ask you tonight

Oh ooh (you better believe it)
Oh ooh (you better believe it)
Oh ooh
I might just ask you tonight (I need a love like that)
Oh ooh
Oh ooh (oh this I promise ya)

Oh ooh
I might just ask you tonight
