

Empty Room

Big Wild

You've got a hollow soul
I feel the love is missing
The colour in your eyes
Is something I've been wishing
Lift the burden on my back
Holding on to what we had
So now I'm dancing in an empty room

So now I'm dancing in an empty room

And not a memory or touch
Became so distant
The sun will rise again
With love comes forgiveness
Lift the burden off my back
Letting go of what we had
So now I'm dancing in an empty room

So now I'm dancing in an empty room

So now I'm dancing in an empty room
So now I'm dancing in an empty room
So now I'm dancing in an empty room
So now I'm dancing in an empty room
