

Maybe I ain't, as cool as I appear to be
Maybe I fell, too fast for you
I knew what is was, almost instantly
Couldn't say how I feel, in fear you'd run from me

I'm back trailing
Ain't no smooth sailing, I chase,
You like a dolphin girl
I am patient but I
I can't contain my feelings
They're like a bird in a cage
I just want to fly around your head for a day
You're more than pretty
You're absolutely divine
Told me I was special
As we danced in your eyes
Now that night has gone
And the struggle has died
I realised maybe I was dreaming
The whole time

Scrape my tears
From your face my dear boy
You got nothing left to cry for
The skies are peach
This time of year
I want someone to love me
Like they gotta die for it
