

Carnage

Big Words

It's easy for you to judge me
Especially the way you do
When you put your arms around me, you drag me down with you
It's alright, I don't care like you do
I'm alright, standing beside the blue
It's better in the silence, recharge from the carnage
Takes a while to get back from, the place where you started
It's alright, I'm treading water
I don't mind, least I'm feeling stronger
Don't take much to break a heart, don't it
Easier than falling in love, won't ya
Stay clear from my days baby
Won't you stay far away from them
I love everything I hold dear
Even if it was just a moment
Cus it's alright
I know things get better
You'll be fine
As long you get stronger
I've been falling
