

Solitude is blissful new to a troubled mind
Freed me of my greatest fears of loving you
Down I've been dark I've seen faces that haunt me
Heartbreak in light of the morning it's not for
Ever it comes and it goes but I'm scared of you

Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me

Solitude is blissful new to a troubled mind
Freed me of my greatest fears of loving you
Down I've been dark I've seen faces that haunt me
Heartbreak in light of the morning it's not for
Ever it comes and it goes but I'm scared of you

Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
Things that you do to me
