

Fall Through The Cracks

Big Wreck

So I won't hear
Unless you tell me to
And I won't see
Unless I look for you
Cause my opinions
They don't mean that much to me
So if they're clashing
I'll trash them happily

Let me fall through your cracks again
But you only notice now and then
Cause I've made this mistake before
I was only comin' back for more
So close your door
I'm back for more

So don't be fooled
By what you see
Cause I fully realise
What's happening to me, yes

Apologies
Well I don't know what else to say
It was never meant to be
But I had fun anyway

Yeah, let me fall through your cracks again
And you only notice now and then
Well I've made this mistake before
I was only comin' back for more
So close your door
I'm back for more

Let me fall through your cracks again
But you only notice now and then
So I've made this mistake before
I was only comin' back for more
So close your door
I'm back for more
Close your door
I'm back for more
Close your door
I'm back for more
