

Fall Back

Big Yavo

Don't you hate when you waste your time?
I can't stop but damn I tried
Really down but say I'm fine
Out the window, dark blue sky
I know I pulled up late but just on time
You know you can't rush nobody
Before I cry and let you wipe my eyes
Smoke all my weed, sip all my lies
Tired of all my nigga dyin'
Before I go I'ma hop out firing
Before I tell I'ma take my time
Hit that switch, now you hear sirens

Damn, I want my dog back
But textin' Purrp like, "Call back."
I'm tired of loving all that
Been thinkin' like should I fall back from everybody and just disappe ar
But my babies need me here
If I let go, baby, can you steer?
My heart probably look like a chandelier
Why you say this?
I done did for plenty niggas
Came through for plenty people
These folks still ain't gave me nothing either

I ain't never need a nigga
Not even a bed and pillow
I been through the worst
Ain't had no mattress or no air conditioner

I come from the real trenches
I won't pull up if it feel iffy
And I stand on grown-man business
Take care of mine and other people children

This a crazy life we living
Niggas spinning but they missing
Hitting all these girls in infants
I thought we ain't fuck with snitches?
I think I got a fucked up vision
Man, Crazy Yay, you be trippin'
I let too many niggas in Gotta start over and do it different

I ain't want to but I gotta—I gotta—I ain't want to but I gotta fall back
I'm tired of loving all that
I gotta—I gotta—I ain't want to but I gotta fall back
I'm tired of loving all that
