

Chance

BigKlit

You had, your chance
No we, won't last
I need a man
Not a fan
You had, your chance
No we, won't last
I need a man
Not a fan
How I gave you a chance
Now I see through the past
We moving way too fast
I had to slow down
I knew this wouldn't last
Can't look back in the past
Don't reach out for my hand
Because I've let you go

First thing I wanna say is nigga fuck you
That's why I didn't even ever try to fuck you
That's why I always wanted anything but you
On and off, always gotta dump you
Second thing I wanna say, I never loved you
Sorry but I wasn't ever dumb enough to Really don't even know why I ever cuffed you
And I didn't even really wanna fuck you
You lack intimacy and silly me, I tried though
Really ain't nothing deeper to you but getting high bro
That's why I kept a few niggas up in my sideshow
I waited for you, but you didn't wanna' grow
Why I believed in you, look nigga I'll never know
I never saw it and you never thought that you was gold
Never needed you, I needed to be on my own
Sneaky bitch, all you did is take me out my zone
I hope you hear this when you cannot get a hold of me
You know the old me, dating you was below me
You are so lame, I'd really rather be lonely
The energy you took, bitch, you owe me

You had, your chance
No we, won't last
I need a man
Not a fan
You had, your chance
No we, won't last
I need a man
Not a fan
I gave you a chance, now I see through the past, we moving way too fast
I had to slow down
Go, go, go
Goooo, go
Goooo, go
Goooo
