(Ayy, we cooking with TWISTER right now)
Hey, hey, (Ayy, vs iced it out)
Hey, hey, hey
Motion

I move like the military 'cause niggas out here grimy, perfect timing
If you ask me I was in due for the shine, ain't gotta find me
I'm right here up in the city, I ain't hiding, they ain't sliding
When they cut the check I went from broke to violent
No for real, I could show you how to make a couple mil'
Choose a pill, this one you might die, this one you might live
Shit give you chills, dude the goon for real, tatted on his ribs
I'm seeing red, I just saw the feds, oh, stop the truck right here Off a Percocet, she give me turkey neck, that lil' ho working that I ain't gotta saw a word for that, fly with the birds for that Can't switch up your words, you gotta stand on what you said
I got motion in the city, so I keep one in the head
Hellcat flat too fat for the opps and too quick for the feds Ceasars red, look like pizza spread, this bitch so easy to fresh
You take money to go to war, I spent that money on my neck
VVS baguette, jump out heavy, pockets full of Shreks It's BigWalkDog in the flesh, nigga can't come next to that Tell 'em, "Let's go check to check", hundred K was just a flex
Another hundred next to that, truck so loud, you scared to guess

Could put and wet the next, shoot this bitch like J. J. Reddick
And this chopper band, this bitch'll chop your hand, I'm buyin' Glock
s again
And I'm on the block again, I might invest the stocks again
I pull up on school, Wop again and put this shit in motion
Think I'm jokin', make it hard to breathe, long shotty leave 'em chok in'
Antisocial, I ain't open, I blew up, bitch, I ain't local Took this shit from hood to global, wrist on ice, I hope you notice Bought this chain, a iced-up 'bow, don't even wear this shit at all
If you ain't 'bout, we gotta get it all, Dog at the church or mall
Have 'em hit up off a call, headshot, faceshot, fresh the jaw
Big daddy bag, she claimin' Walk, this shit for sho', I needa stall
The biggest what? The biggest dog, ain't no more faces of a mall
You set a price, I'm servin' raw and I won't show them folks a flaw
This shit ain't right, it's gettin' tall, see, we ain't trippin' 'bou t no cost
A nigga know what's up with Walk, you can't be me 'cause you too soft
I'm a big player, but still a boss

Say I'm a big player, but still a boss
