

About You

BigXthaPlug

Ayy, this goes to Mrs. Right because you swear you do no wrong
You claim that love was your intent but meant to hurt me all along
You ran me through the mud, you told your friends I led you on
I had so much love in my heart for you, I seen through all your flaws
And all those walls I broke 'em down, now I regret it
Just look at all this shit that I done caused, I can't forget it
You said you wouldn't leave but shit got hard and then you did it
If I could put a price tag on my heart, I swear I'd sell it
First classed it when I mailed it

Go ahead and make it about you
Keep telling yourself, I put you through hell
And how my heart is breaking without you
Baby, don't flatter yourself
I don't miss the crazy, I don't miss the lies
I don't miss a damn thing, spin it how you like
I know you're gonna do what you always do
Go ahead and make it about you

Ayy, it's cool when you do it but to them folks you say it's me
Like I ain't give you all my love and you ain't toss it in the street
Why you didn't tell me about your selfish ways instead I had to see Went with your move, it hurt me deep, you even spilled some of the te a
But for you I never changed, I dealt with all your wrong
I even tried to fix your ways to get you back on track
But then you left me for that train, now I'm sittin' here in pain
Did everything that I could do still tryna wrap around my brain, hey

Go ahead and make it about you
Keep telling yourself, I put you through hell
And how my heart is breaking without you
Baby, don't flatter yourself
I don't miss the crazy, I don't miss the lies
I don't miss a damn thing, spin it how you like
I know you're gonna do what you always do
Go ahead and make it about you
Go ahead and make it about you
Keep telling yourself, I put you through hell
And how my heart is breaking without you
Baby, don't flatter yourself
I don't miss the crazy, I don't miss the lies
I don't miss a damn thing, spin it how you like
I know you're gonna do what you always do
Go ahead and make it about you

Yeah, go 'head and make it about you
