

All The Way

BigXthaPlug

Don't let me down easy, if you're gonna leave me
Baby, go and leave me all the way
Don't ask for all your things back, cussin' out my name, yeah
Just to go and take back what you say
Burn all the bridges, don't ask forgiveness
Walk away like I'm someone you hate
Don't let me down easy, if you're gonna leave me
Baby, go and leave me all the way

Ayy, if it's over, it's over, so fuck it
Just don't act like my love wasn't nothin'
Like I wasn't the one you was holdin' at night
Tellin' all of your secrets and huggin'
Guess you right, it's too good to be true
Was a point all I needed was you
But shit, time after time, all this fussin' and fighting
It's time that you do what you do
And it's cool
Mama said it was fish in the sea, I got lost in the pool
Knew it was comin', I watched how you move
How you turn your back on me and leave me to lose?
Remember the text, all you said that you'd do
Said that you'd never leave, we would fight 'til it's due
But as it went on, I was fightin' for you
Seen the texts had turn green, why the fuck it ain't blue?
Guess you done and I get it
Said you stayin', you wanted my name and you left, so I'm guessin' that you never meant it
Said you'd try and hold on 'cause the love was so strong, now I'm standing a lone this kitchen
Singin' sad songs, but I'm knowin' that this shit don't last long
If you leavin', then leave 'cause your bags gone
But just know, you can never come back home

Don't let me down easy, if you're gonna leave me
Baby, go and leave me all the way
Don't ask for all your things back, cussin' out my name, yeah
Just to go and take back what you say
Burn all the bridges, don't ask forgiveness
Walk away like I'm someone you hate
Don't let me down easy, if you're gonna leave me
Baby, go and leave me all the way

Ayy, if you say that you done, ain't no take backs
Said you fell out of love and I hate that But see me, I was stuck like a drug, really fiendin' for love and somehow, I can't shake back
When you walked out that door, I was hurtin'
All the dreams in my head, you was perfect
You remember the very first time that we chilled and I reached for your hand
, where them nerves at?
Time repairs and shit, that's what it do
It be times I be sick, sit and thinkin' 'bout you
It was death do us part 'til you gave me the blues
Really played my heart, left me lost and confused
Thought this shit was fair game, but you made up the rules
On my heart, left a scar and a bruise

Hope that you can stand on all the shit that you did
'Cause I'm done, yeah, I'm finally through

Don't let me down easy, if you're gonna leave me
Baby, go and leave me all the way
Don't ask for all your things back, cussin' out my name, yeah
Just to go and take back what you say
Burn all the bridges, don't ask forgiveness
Walk away like I'm someone you hate
Don't let me down easy, if you're gonna leave me
Baby, go and leave me all the way
